Born as a Dream,

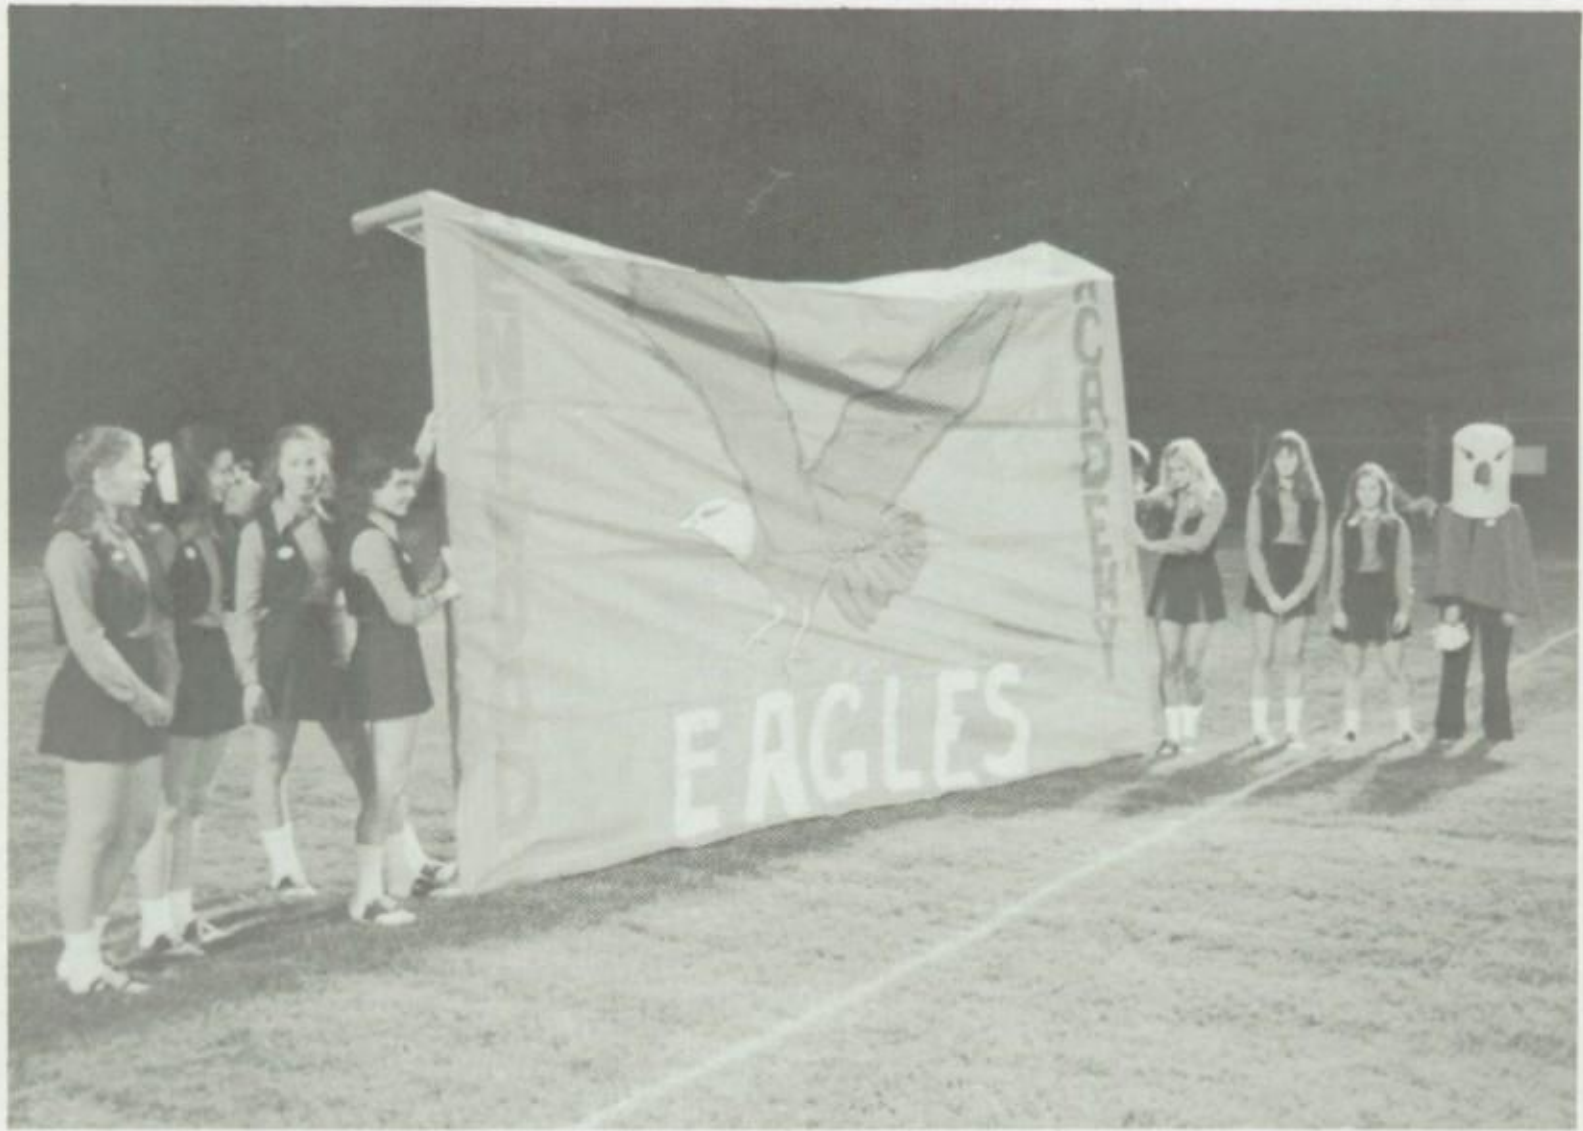

And Bound by Hope,

and Guided by His Hand,

Our School Has Grown With Trust and Faith —

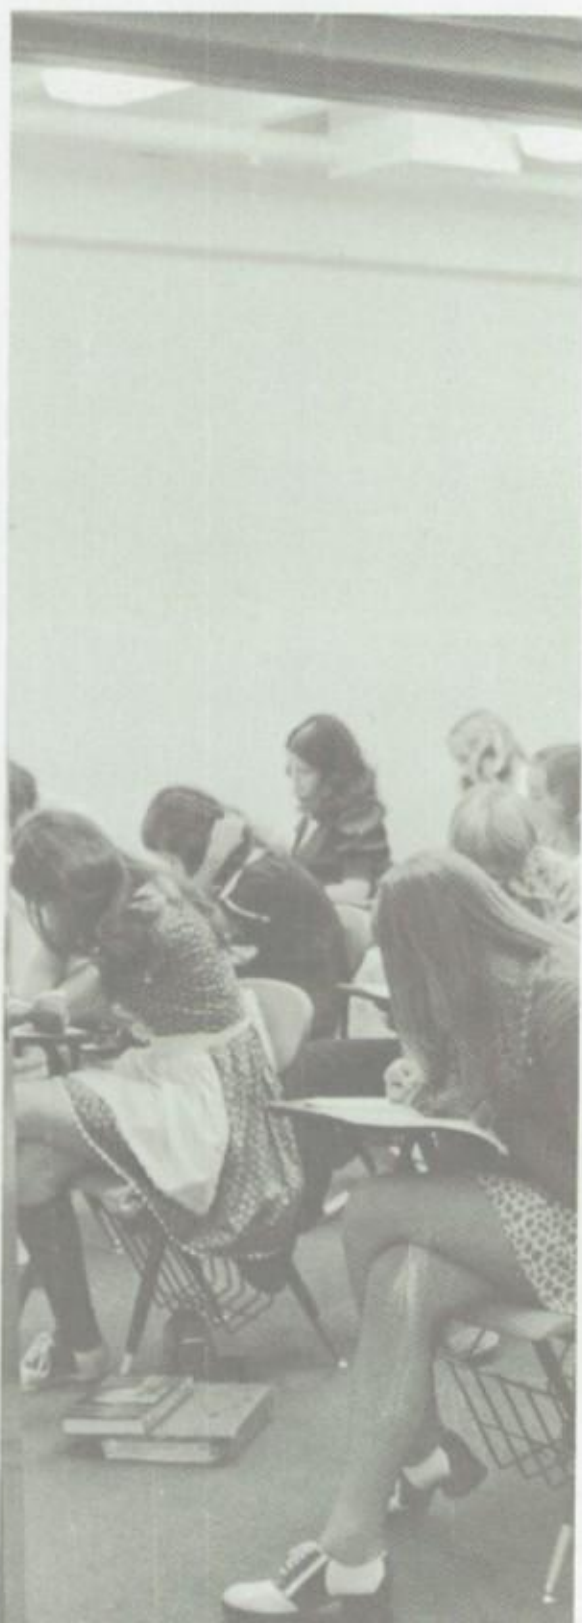

the Best in All the Land.

Through Strife and Toil, We Will Prevail.

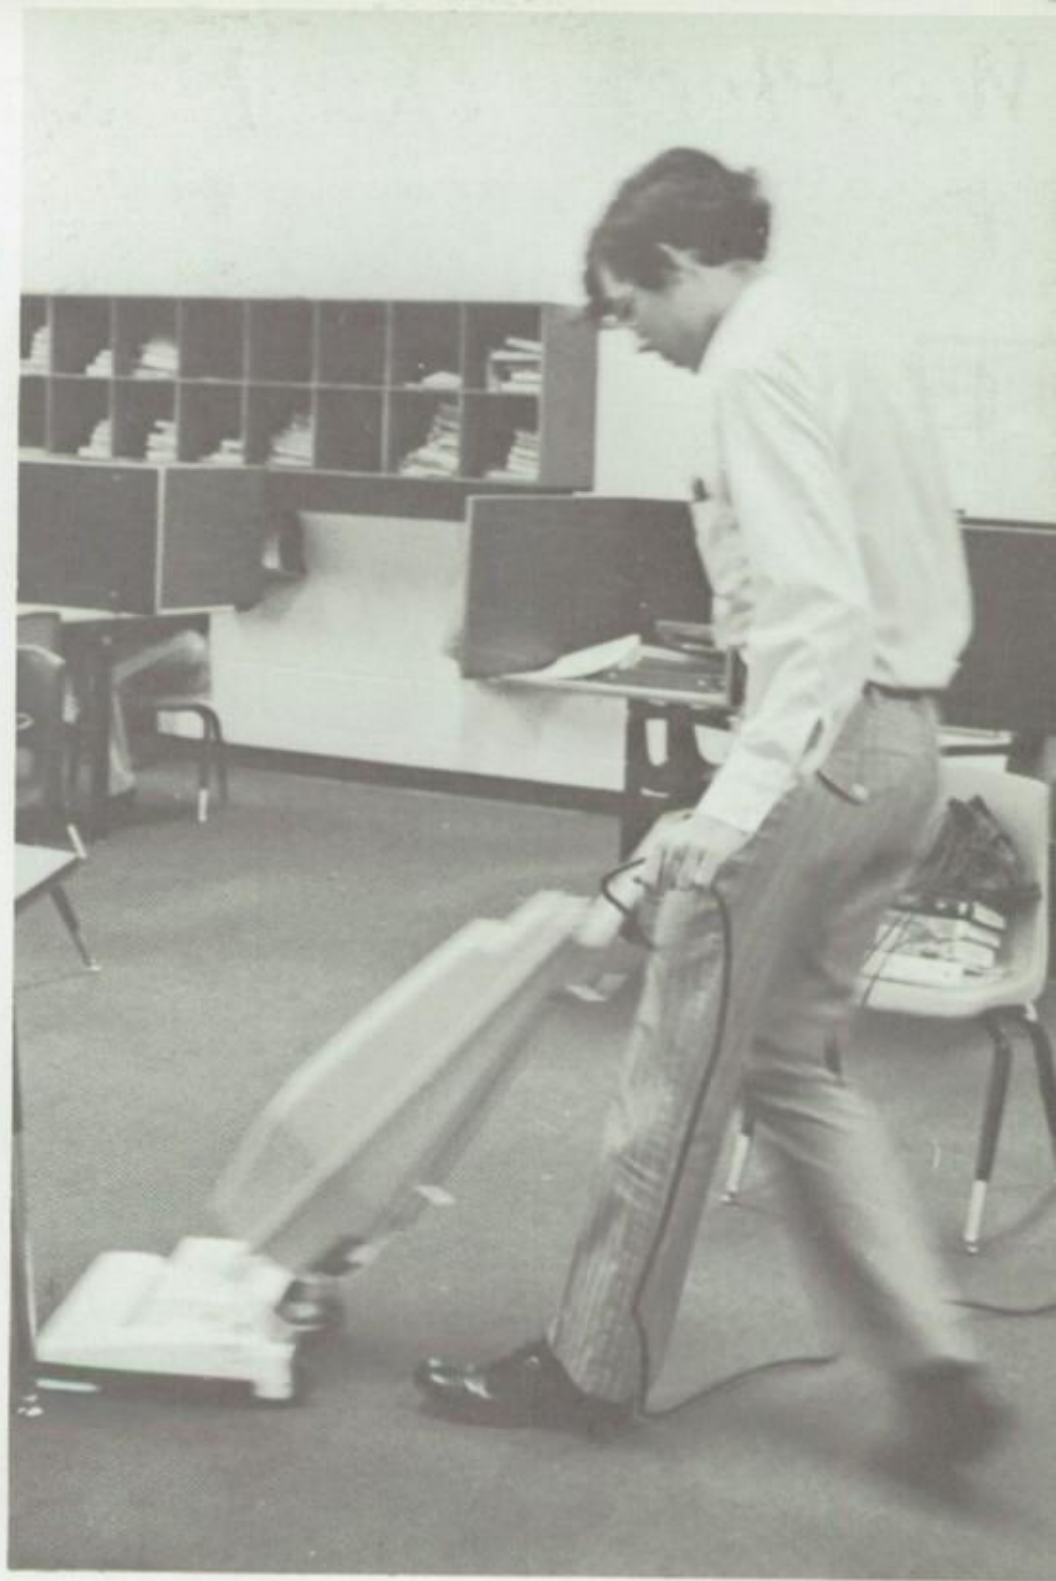

United We Will Be.

We Pledge Our Honor, Proud and Strong.

Brentwood —

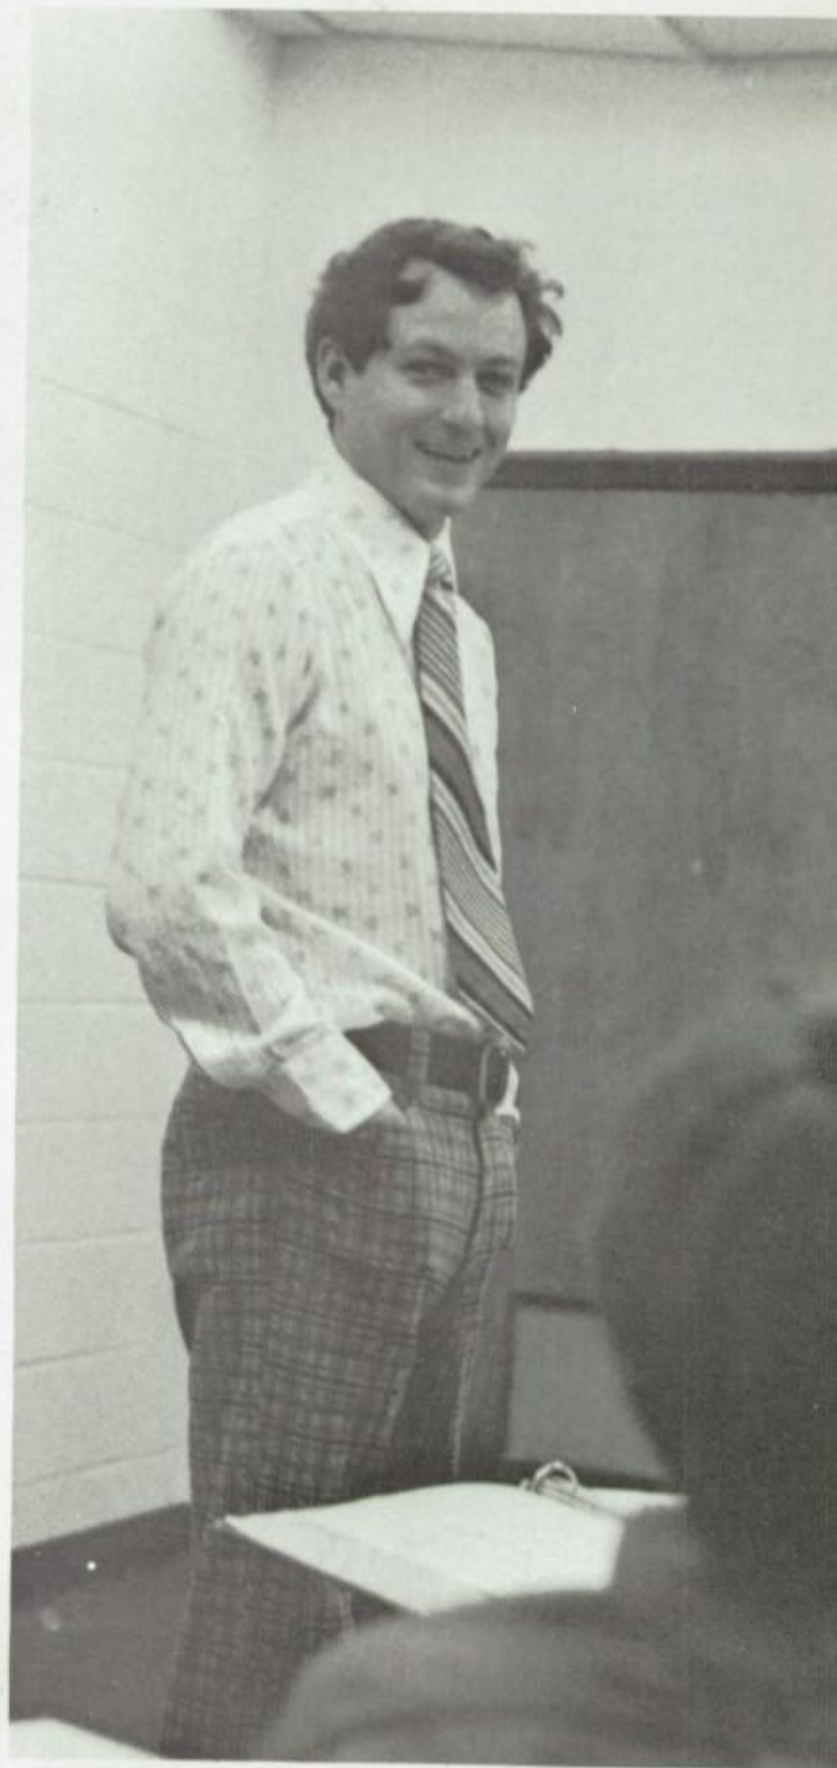

Hail to Thee.

The 1973-1974 AERIE is dedicated to two outstanding faculty members. They have contributed greatly to all areas of Brentwood Academy, and they have given of their time and efforts freely. One has led the football team to many victorious games. He is enthusiastic in all of his work, and he GUARANTEES his students that algebra is important. The other is famous for her meter stick. She has worked diligently on the Southern Association reports, and she has often comforted and consoled her students. They are deeply appreciated and genuinely admired. Spiritually, academically, and athletically, they are leaders. The student body would like to thank Coach Flatt and Mrs. Baumgartner for their dedication and understanding.

WILLIAM MICHAEL WILSON

Last Will and Testament

I, RICK BAGGETT, do hereby leave my razor without blades to John Hailey, my exceptionally high I. Q. to Nat Ambrose, and my great academic record to Dr. Beauchamp.

I, STEVE BASS, do hereby leave the ability to be brief but pithy in assemblies to Coach Flatt, a bottle of "Rejoice" (extra dry) shampoo to Terri Delboy, and the memory of Irby Bright to Donna Plant.

I, CHUCK BEATTY, do hereby leave my 3rd period fights with Lynn Beasley to Hal Bumbalough, and a pan of factory made false sideburns to Steve Linebaugh to replace his false ones.

I, LYNN BEASLEY, do hereby leave my ability to argue with Chuck to Carol Watkins so she can hassle Hal next year, and my ability to fly through the air with the trampoline belt on to fifth period P.E.

I, CHUCK BLACKARD, do hereby leave my attempt to convert Mrs. Baumgartner to Christianity to any Junior who thinks he can handle it, a key to my room at Reese Hall University of Tennessee to Gail Warden, and a Dr. Seuss' RED FISH BLUE FISH book to Dwight Bowers in hope that he will expand his education.

I, TRIP BOON, do hereby leave my immortal virtues and perfect etiquette to Rod Wald, the smelliest and grubbiest pair of sweat socks I have to "The Melvin Black", and my ability to sit through a soap opera to Cynthia Peay.

I, IRBY BRIGHT, do hereby leave my absolutely fantastic hambone talent to Coach Flatt, my great ability to drop a pass under any circumstances to John Hailey, and my "Women are the root of all evil" membership card to Mrs. Baumgartner.

I, MARY CATHERINE CARGILE, do hereby leave my innate flirting abilities to Mrs. Baumgartner, a copy of Betty Crocker's HOW TO BAKE A CAKE to "Mighty Melvin", who needs it desperately, and an autographed copy of my new book, THE GREAT ESCAPE to Sandra McWilliams.

I, DAN COLEY, do hereby leave Mrs. Newport's yard to any other mountain climber that's dumb enough to cut it, my fabulous ability to try alot, succeed at little, match the clothes I wear, of course, my renowned knowledge of the humanities, the ability to grow my hair, gripe about assemblies and senior trips, and in general my ability to mouth off on any and all subjects, to Marvy Mel Black, and a deck of cards and seven cents, to any body who wants to get rich quick at football camp.

I, BING DAVIS, do hereby leave Coach Flatt's love for me to Tom Hardin, and 2 tickets to see THE EXORCIST to Jan Ray and Dale Cornwell.

I, PEEWEE EDMONDS, do hereby leave my name "Peewee" to Coach Miller, and I do hereby leave.

I, STASIA FERRELL, do hereby leave my ace bandage to Mr. Black, my ability to "not be too embarrassed" to the girls varsity basketball team, and my extreme conscientiousness to Betsy Burns.

I, ALLEN GAISER, do hereby leave, 1 copy of THE PROPHET, 1 copy of THE KORAN, and 1 copy of the TORAH to Mrs. Baumgartner.

I, TOMMY GIDDENS, do hereby leave my trade school application to Mr. Crocker, and my car, big white, in replacement of the school bus.

I, BOB HALL, do hereby leave one set of training wheels to Coach Miller for his motorcycle, to Mr. Black one tube of Ultra Bright toothpaste for his beautiful teeth which he loves to show, and to Mr. Crocker one pair of waxed Halloween lips, my size 13 basketball shoes, my ability to dunk a ball, and my beautiful physique to John McCain.

I, JUD HAYNIE, do hereby leave my gratitude and respect to Mr. Crocker who taught me the importance of learning, I leave with concern and admiration for one of my favorite people Jan Ray, and ten tickets to see "The Exorcist" to the cheerleaders who go in for that kind of stuff.

I, TINA HIBBETT, do hereby leave my Shock-Em Do - It - Yourself Electrical Kit to Mrs. Baumgartner, and my English notebook to Connie Holt so she can refrain from the trouble of making one next year.

I, CINDY HOWARD, do hereby leave my pronunciation of "Italian" to Mr. Baker, my Lucio Battisti and Bee Gee's albums to Mrs. Stewart, and my athletic co-ordination to Coach Huskey.

I, LAURA JUNGMICHEL, do hereby leave my Lucio Battisti and Bee Gees records to Mr. and Mrs. Stewart in memory of our trip to Europe, my collection of Elvis Presley records and my Einstein report to Mrs. Baumgartner, and an all-expense paid trip to Mexico City and Acapulco to Miss Cornelius.

I, GEORGE LINEBAUGH, do hereby leave Little M. and Big W. to Randal Mash, and a trail of broken romances to Randal Mash, in vain hopes that he will do better.

I, SCOT MacBEAN, do hereby leave my ability to win races to Dwight Bowers.

I, HAL MINNIGAN, do hereby leave Rev. Asbury's docile manner and subdued temperament to anyone who may prophet from it, Mr. Crocker's class with a thorough knowledge of absolute truth, and my set of Childcraft Bible Reference books to Mrs. Baumgartner, with the hope she will one day grow into them.

I, ALLEN O'BRIEN, do hereby leave nothing to nobody, because those who need it, don't deserve it, and those who deserve it, don't need it.

I, DIANA PASLAY, do hereby leave my talking ability to Ginger Sweeny.

I, CRICKET ROBBINS, do hereby leave my fudge and happiness to Jan Ray, and my gas credit cards to Max.

I, RICKY SMITH, do hereby leave my ability to lead a class discussion to Mr. Crocker, my mysterious burst of laughter to Mrs. Baumgartner, and a poster of Bill Ligon to Hal Bumbalough.

I, MIKE WILSON, do hereby leave one copy of "A Boys Guide to Being a Gentleman" to Ron Jaekle, my "moment of glory" in the end zone during the Harding Academy game to Coach Miller, and something simple to Randal Mash because as he knows "Simple's better than nothing".

Eagles Boast 10-1 Record!

Brentwood Academy finished its best football season ever with a 10-1 record, first place finish in their respective district, and a rating of second place in the state.

Opening the season with a defensive battle against a traditional conqueror, Brentwood turned the tables to defeat David Lipscomb 14-0.

Despite a rain soaked field, Jimmy Brett added ample strength to Brentwood's ground attack by gaining 94 yards in five carries in the second game of the season as the Eagles defeated Loretto High School 20-6.

With these two victories under their wings, the Eagles marched on the field to battle the Class AA Bellevue Owls. Despite a Brentwood defensive hold in the first three quarters of play, Bellevue completely dominated the fourth quarter by scoring 20 points to win 33-7.

Determined to leave their defeat behind, the Brentwood Eagles re-entered the winning circle as they defeated Hume Fogg 35-16.

An upset followed as the high flying Eagles defeated unbeaten Joelton. An outstanding defense which kept the Blue Jays from going to the air was backed by a superb offensive attack as Dan Coley ran four of five Brentwood touchdowns to claim a 35-8 victory.

Mount Pleasant faced a homecoming defeat as the Eagle defense led by Jim Shaub, Nat Ambrose, Philip Burkhalter, and Ricky Smith held the opposition to a 14-0 win. With Rick Bagget averaging 39 yards per punt, Mount Pleasant did not muster a serious scoring threat.

The Eagles flew to a homecoming victory as a steady offense by Dan Coley, Chuck Beatty, and Dwight Bowers boasted an overwhelming winning score of 62-0 to defeat Greenbrier in the seventh game of the season.

The Brentwood team displayed their overall strength at Waynesboro as they downed the home team 54-8. The Eagles took to the air as Randall Mash passed for 195 yards while the backs did their part by rushing for 307 yards.

A defeat of 42-0 over Hohenwald gave the Eagles their eighth victory in nine games. It was a decisive win as the Eagles nested 400 yards rushing supported by Steve Inglis with 73 yards and Tony Flatt with 70 yards. Six extra point conversions by Scott MacBean added cream to the pie.

The Eagles placed themselves in a three-way tie with Westmoreland and White House for a berth in the state playoffs by crushing Harding Academy 65-8. The decision as to which team would go to the playoffs was decided on the basis of playoff points, which was awarded to White House.

After trouncing Westmoreland 28-7 in the 15th annual Blanket Bowl, the Eagles could very justifiably claim they are the best, especially after downing a team which defeated White House. Coley obtained his 164th point of the season to virtually wrap up the state scoring title for Class A Midstate M.V.P.

A season record of 10-1 belonged to the Eagles who barely missed the chance to go to the state playoffs, but the players knew in their minds that they were the best.

Basketball is a team sport and teams must have togetherness and the boys did, even with a losing record. Brentwood won some big games during the regular season and showed a marked improvement over previous years. As the season progressed the team continued to improve and they showed what they were made of the last four games of the season. Although the Eagles lost three of the four games, the largest point spread was four points in a heartbreaking loss to David Lipscomb in the district playoffs. Lipscomb went on to become the number one team in the district and later the region. Brentwood never quit and that is the biggest asset any team could have.

What are your reactions to basketball?

. . . It's my favorite sport. I just love it. I like the teamwork. It's a team sport. Like when we fall, we fall together, and when we win we win together. We all feel the same way about it. Our team is different from most, it's the closeness of the team, we're all united, we work as one. We're all united under one spirit. Plus our coaches, they are so neat. We've got the best coaches in the country. We've got one coach no one ever see's. He's out of this world.

Do you think it helps you as a team?

. . . Yes, I learn to sacrifice, you know, you sacrifice for each other. You learn to love each other. We know we all have faults and we know we won't get anywhere without God. We don't play a game, when I don't think God's not there. I know we could never do anything without Him. It's not us who wins the game it's Him. I think any player on our team would appreciate all of ya'll thanking God for letting us play well instead of telling us we played well.

Boys' Tennis

The Brentwood boys tennis team opened up its first regular season this spring. There was a lot of competition among interested tennis players in the school to get on the tennis ladder. The ladder soon became stable and Brentwood had a team. The ladder stood in the order of: Hal Minnigan, Van Wadlington, Trip Boon, Steve Linebaugh, Carl Storey, and John Riech. Doubles were the same in order, Minnigan and Wadlington, Boon and Linebaugh, and Storey and Reich.

At the end of the season Brentwood closed out with a 3-5 record. They faced more experienced and more powerful teams throughout the season. When reaching the districts everybody was on their own; however lack of experience showed. Even though, Hal Minnigan and Van Wadlington made a good showing for Brentwood tennis. Next year they will still have most of their players, as they are losing only two through graduation, and this year's experience will help out in improving next year's team.

Girls' Tennis

The girls tennis ladder stands in the order of Kathy Wheeler, Susan Dennison, Amy Wadlington, Kathy Swann, Melanie Wald, and Tina Hibbett. The doubles teams are in the order of Wheeler and Dennison, Wadlington and Swann, and Wald and Hibbett. They placed first in the District 4 playoffs, and they also won second place in the Rotary Tennis Tournament in Chattanooga. They did not play many matches during the regular season, but they managed to win every match except Harpeth Hall. The final season record before district play was 3-1. Kathy Wheeler went to the finals in Regional competition and lost a heart breaker. She & her doubles partner, Susan Dennison, also, made it to the Regional finals before losing to worthy opponents. Following the Regionals, Kathy went to the semi-finals in State competition before being eliminated. As a team, the Brentwood girls, were recognized as Runner-Up in the Region! The girls' tennis has come a long way and is one of the best groups of girl tennis players around!
